

EDUCATIONAL BOOTCAMP

MATH + SCIENCE INTERVENTION EXPERTS

Math and/or Science Content Writer

Educational Bootcamp is an intervention company that creates hands-on activities and games for Math and Science which guarantee improvements for students across all quartiles. Our Bootcamp program builds depth of knowledge, maintains previously taught skills, and acts as a benchmark interpreter for teachers.

Our company is looking to grow with individuals who are willing to use their skills to help students achieve and excel. We believe in Commitment to our teachers, students, and parents, Objectives that focus on impact, Mastery of skills within each benchmark, Accountability that our company has products that are fully aligned to the standards, Nurturing new and prior knowledge to remain a mastered skill, and Diversity-, because all learners deserve the best education.

Skills Required

- 2+ years of teaching elementary school math and/or science for Grade 3, 4, and/or 5
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office; specifically Word and Publisher
- Excellent editing, punctuation, and grammar skills
- Determine if math and/or science content is aligned to state standards
- Create content related to math and/or science to be used in educational resources that are aligned to state standards
- Create articles that will assist teachers with tips/information that would be most useful to them
- Conceptualize images and graphs that would aid in educational articles
- Ability to adjust word choice for appropriate grade-level
- A keen eye for detail to make products cohesive in style and format
- Ability to multi-task
- Willingness to learn and to problem solve

Education Required

- BA or higher in education